INTRODUCTION

---

Team Lijan is operating anonymously along with In the creative genius who goes by the pseudonym of Sakimoto Jean Pierre (who also remains anonymous) has left the project and has given all the operational duties, development, vision, goal functions, Present and future to Team Lijan for the success of the LijanCoin Token. The vision of Sakimoto was to develop a token as good as and or better than Shiba Inu and keep control of the majority of the coins to burn in the near future for the Token holder's advantage.

LIJAN COIN

This does not assure a rise in the price of the token but it gives a higher probability of success. While other tokens have trillions outstanding, The LijanCoin token has a manageable 210 billion total market cap that is in control of the management and total control of the token. No coins will be donated to outside individuals to dump on the market to cause inflation and slow or stop the growth of the token. Sakimotos plan is ingenious for possible early success within early and future holders. This is a LONG TERM PROJECT.
